For Collector,
ERNEST HENDRICK,

Mr. Blaine reached Boston last night, and will go to visit the fair at Worcester. His visit will afterwards be extended to Ohio, and possibly to Indiana.

Circus in Inter-Ocean: If Cleveland visits Chicago the Iroquois Club will advertise for bids for a platter warranted to fit Carter Harrison's mouth and shut off his eloquence. It would have to be twelve inches wide and six inches thick.

The review of the Blaine letter correspondence from the New York Tribune, which will be found on the fourth page of to-day's paper, should be read by everybody. It is a complete analysis of the whole matter, and shows it up in its true light.

In has not been three weeks since the Democratic organ in New York declared that "Republicans had no money, and the failure to hand it out of government clerks had reduced the friends of Blaine to desparate straits." Now the same organs are shouting that "the Republicans spent $265,000 in Maine, and bought votes by the thousand." It is best to be honest, even in lying.

At the Democratic convention at Clinton nominated Mr. C. C. Clay for Congress two days ago the Review has not yet had a word to say in his behalf, nor has it placed his name among the candidates which adorn the Democratic ticket at the head of its columns. Can it be possible that our neighbor is disgruntled because his own name did not "lead all the rest" at the Clinton convention? Oh, brother Sam, we didn't look for such a spirit from you. The nomination sought and found Mr. Clark, and you hadn't oughter be mad about it.

Even little while some reckless Democrats are heard to claim that Illinois will go Bourbon in November, but the wise ones among them do not believe any such thing. Henry Setler, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant governor, is the present senator from the St. Clair district, whose term will not expire for two years. He has not resigned that office, plainly showing that he does not expect to be elected to the higher office for which he is running. George Hunt, the Republican candidate for attorney general, is also a hold-over senator, and as soon as he was nominated for the state office resigned his seat in the senate. The contract is noticeable—one is certain of election while the other feels certain of defeat. And both are right in their prognostications.

Among the minor incidents of the campaign is the publication by the New York Times (bolting Republicans) of an official city advertisement four columns long, in fine type. Among the names officially signed to the advertisement is that of Hubert O. Thompson, the Public Works Commissioner, in whose interest Governor Cleveland vetoed the Civil Service bill, which the late New York Republican Legislature had passed. Bolting the Republican candidates "for revenue only" appears to pay quick returns to the New York Times in official advertising.

In a special dispatch from Ohio, "Gath" telegraphs: "Ohio is for Blaine in October. I have looked into it, and feel that it will be the British party's Waterloo. Yet not a shew will be spared. The Germans are coming to the front for Blaine like follow men."

Flora Journal: The fight in Illinois stands about this way: Oglesby is backed by the legitimate business interests and the moral sentiment of the people, while Harrison's main support comes from the Chicago hoodlums and the organized bums all over the state.

CRIME'S CALENDAR.

The Mayor of the City of Charlotte, Michigan, Shot
by a Tramp.

An Attendant in a Kentucky Insane
Asylum Brained by a Negro Patient.

A Brutal Boss—Slabbed to Death by Wife-Buster—A Serious Mob, Etc., Etc.

Shot by a Tramp.

CHARLOTTE, MICH., September 17.—This city is wild with excitement over the shooting of Mayor Samuel Robinson by a tramp at a late hour last night. It appears that after Robinson retired he was startled by some one at his bed-room window. He arose and stepped to the door and ordered the intruder to leave. Whereupon two shots were fired at the door, and one of which entered his left breast. A hue and cry was raised by the officers, and the citizens were aroused. After a search the man who is supposed to be the assassin was found at the Grand Trunk Junction. When taken into custody and placed in jail, a revolver was found on his person. The revolver carried the same sized ball as the one fired at Robinson. Robinson's condition is critical. His physicians do not give his friends much encouragement.

Kapt His Threat.

LOUISVILLE, KY., September 17.—A negro patient at the Anchorage Insane Asylum attacked an attendant Monday and beat him into insensibility, inflicting injuries which are regarded as fatal. Several patients were at work in the garden of the asylum under the charge of one attendant, when the insane negro named Tom Williams, struck him with a baton and clubbed him over the head with a shovel, fracturing his skull. The assault was premeditated, the lunatic having threatened a year ago to kill this guard at the first opportunity.

Stabbed in the Neck.

Dr. SOLO MO, September 17.—Last night about one o'clock Section Boss Quinn of the Iron Mountain Road went to the boarding place of James Evans, and calling him up stabbed him in the neck, inflicting a serious wound. The man had quarreled during the day, Quinn discharging Evans. The wounded man was taken to the Railway Employees' Home in Carondelet this morning.

Murdered Chivalry.

COLUMBUS, O., September 17.—James Jones, living near Corning, quarreled with his wife yesterday, and John Hunter interfered in her behalf. Jones stabbed Hunter several times in the body, from the effects of which he died within a few minutes.

A Serious Mob.

DETROIT, MICH., September 17.—A special to the News from London, Ont., says that during a street row in Niles-ton, eight miles from there, between ten and eleven o'clock last night, Rufus Eldridge, a farmer of the second concession of Westminister, was fatally stabbed in the heart, and died about three minutes. Afterward three men, alleged to be interested in the affair, were arrested, and brought to jail. Another man, named Edward Kelly, is reported to be dying from wounds received in the meee.

Marauding Miners.

ATLANTA, GA., September 17.—The evict ed and idle miners are said to be committing depredations on farms in this vicinity, owing to their destitution. The farmers are afraid to take legal steps for their protection.

TIN-PAN WARFARE.

The Wives of Striking Miners to Organize For the Campaign.

PITTSBURGH, PA., September 18.—President Costello, of the Miners' Association, returned this afternoon from the camps of the strikers. He reports no change in the situation. The women are now talking very strongly of joining the men in their usual morning parade to intercept the non-unions. A number of them got together one of the non-unions on his way home from work at Hart's mines last evening, and un-janned him severely.

A few non-unions at the Umpire mine were also panned by a number of farmers' wives and daughters. About fifteen women also visited the Calcutta mine, well equipped with the pens and traps used by the non-unions as they came out of the mine. According to the woman was likely to be held in evincing to decide upon future action. It is very probable that they will effect an organization 100 strong. They are very aggressive, and at the home of one non-unions, who was besieged last evening, a free-for-all fight was narrowly prevented. The non-unions took his property, but his wife's life was spared, and there was a war of words such as can only take place between excited females.

Twenty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Bonds Missing.

BOSTON, MASS., September 18.—Emory D. Fisher, Superintendent of the Box Department at the Post-office, and another gentleman, have charge of a trust estate belonging to Miss Wilson, and the securities are deposited in one of the safety deposit vaults in this city. On August 25th both trustees found everything correct, but yesterday forenoon another examination showed $20,000 missing. The bonds missing are $10,000 worth of the City of Cambridge water loan bonds numbered from 1251 to 1260, inclusive. A young man in the family of the trustee had access to the vault, and as far as can be ascertained is not now in Boston. The bonds are negotiable.

The Southern Illinois Reunion.

MOUNT CARMEL, ILL., September 17.—The annual meeting of the Southern Illinois Reunion Association is passing out. The boys made a night of it Tuesday night, having a band and a glee club serenading the entire town. Yesterday Mother Superior Dead.

MANCHESTER, N. H., September 18.—Rev. Mother Superior, Marie Francess Xavier Walde, founder of the order of the Sisters of Mercy in America, died at Mount St. Mary's Convent yesterday at the age of seventy-four years.

Grady Going to Work.

BOSTON, MASS., September 18.—Ex-Senator Grady, of New York, will visit Boston with General Butler this week, and will stump the State in the interest of the People's party.

CRIME'S CALENDAR.

It is to your interest to read and learn that Marcott's Restaurant and Oyster House are open for the attention paid to its patrons, from the proprietors to the last one of the help, which consists of Grant Ballantine, an accomodating young gentleman and an expert at his trade, having served his time in one of the largest restaurants in the state. Our last addition is Clint Brodbeck, on whom it is unnecessary to comment having been connected with a similar establishment in the city, and has hosts of friends whom he will be pleased to seat at his table.
Last night he opened with Frank Young, who is willing and attentive, and wears a smile at all times which is sure to give you an appetite. The tables are furnished with all possible varieties that the market can afford. The establishment should receive the hearty support of our citizens, as it is the only place in the city where they will get up a meal for you at all hours. Farmers will find it convenient, and their trade is solicited.
Oysters, which we make a specialty
during the fall and winter months, you will find us first and foremost in quality and style. Cleanliness and punctuality will be strictly observed. Call and be conducted to Marcott's Restaurant and Oyster House, 114 North Water street.

AMUSEMENTS

The "Bandit King" To Night

The greatest sensation on the earth,

James Wallack and his famous acting horses, "Bay Rider and Roan Charger." Read what the Springfield Register says: "Mr. J. H. Wallock presented his celebrated sensational and equestrian drama entitled 'The Bandit King,' at the opera house last night. The dashing actor won round after round of applause in the most exciting scenes and his trained horses, "Bay Rider and Roan Charger," seemed to fairly enter into the spirit of the play." The company, as a whole, acquitted itself, very well. Admission only 50, 50 and 75 cents.

NOTES

The receipts up to last night, from all sources, were about $300.

MACON COUNTY FAIR.

Farmers' Day at the Grounds—Dust and People.

Premiums Awarded—Baby Show Tomorrow.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18.

There is rather more dust to-day than is absolutely necessary for comfort, yet the grounds are pretty well filled with visitors. Farmers with their families commenced coming in before 8 o'clock, and the prospect now is that with fair weather to-morrow the Macon county fair for 1884 will be a financial success.

PREMIUMS AWARDED.

Old fair-goers say that the exhibition is the best ever since 1878, and it is really an exhibition deserving of great patronage. The following awards were made:
